We can see a lot of ancient buildings. If we want to visit the Palace Museum, we should pay attention to our safety. We had better go with our friends or family.

We students just listened and took some notes. So we didn't have enough time to think about problems by ourselves. We had to do much homework after class. But now teachers show the problems to us first, then we discuss them for a while in groups. We try to find out the ways of solving problems. We've learned how to work with others. After class, we can have different activities, such as reading books we like, going to the library or surfing the Internet for useful information and so on.

In a word, now we are the master of our study and we're happy.

How are you going? I'm very glad to know you are coming to Beijing for a visit next week. I can't wait to see you now.

Beijing is a famous city with lots of places of interest. I suggest you should visit the Great Wall. It is one of the world's wonders. The transportation is very convenient now. You had better take the subway to go out.

To be a well-mannered middle school student, I think we must pay attention to our behaviors during the visit. When we wait for a bus, we should stand in a line. On a bus, we should offer our seats to old people or people with a child. We shouldn't throw rubbish everywhere in order to keep our environment clean.

Looking forward to your coming!

Best wishes!

Yours,

Li Li

Firstly, when you meet Chinese people for the first time, you are supposed to shake hands. It's polite to smile and say hello to them. You should knock on the door before entering the room. You are expected to bring a small gift if you visit your friends for the first time. It's polite to call first if you want to visit your friend.

Then, it's helpful to learn as many of the table manners as possible. When you are eating at the table, you are not supposed to use your chopsticks to hit an empty bowl. You're not supposed to stick the chopsticks into the food. It is also impolite to point at others.

I'm looking forward to your coming.

Yours,

Li Hua

English is one of the most important subjects in our studies. And there are many ways for us to learn it well. But I don't think it is easy to do so. We must try our best.

Everyone wants to remember the whole vocabulary. We also want to use them correctly. Of course, we cannot expect to do this in a few months. We must read and write every day. We must study grammar. And we must practice more. The more you speak, the better your English will become.

Everyone makes mistakes when speaking. We should keep humorous when someone laughs at our mistakes. What we can do is speak more. As the old saying goes, "Practice makes perfect."

Keep trying and working hard to improve your English. Because I believe where there is a will, there is a way.
